

Help us fund our External Partnerships and Resident Artists!

Renaissance relies on outstanding community partnerships to expand its students' world view. architecture, sculpture and ceramics, poetry, drama, and playwriting, folk, jazz and vocal music; all these art forms are integrated into the social studies, math, science and ELA curriculae at various times in all the grades in successful partnerships with many of the cultural jewels of New York City. Innovative approaches to science and geography have brought the leaders in these subjects to Renaissance's door. Some of our current classroom partnerships include:

- CUNY CAT Shakespeare Festival
- Metropolitan Opera Guild: PO & Research Institute: Opera in the Classroom
- Live Theatre Program
- Children's Museum of the Arts; see our partnership highlighted on CMA's website
- The Jazz Project at Queens College K-4
- Archi-Kids
- PK-5 Fine Arts Curriculum Integration

Please help us be able to enrich our students' lives and imagination with the rich partnerships that only our great city can offer. We welcome any amount, and will be happy to designate your gift to any of the partnerships above.
